

Dear Owen L. Coon Foundation,

My name is Zane Waxman, and I am currently a sophomore at Northwestern. I am lucky enough to attend this fantastic university thanks to the funding I receive through the Hardy Scholarship.

My time as a member of the Northwestern Debate Society has truly changed my perspective on life and demonstrated to me the importance of pursuing excellence through determination and perseverance.

I am truly grateful for your support, and I hope this note finds you well. Best,

Zane Waxman
